Burning Bush Brewery does other products besides our handcraft beers, example would be these Elk Jerky Bags. Our jerky are made from elk hunted in the wild here in the state of Montana. Here at Burning Bush Brewery will believe having wild caught and hunted game makes for the best tasting jerky anyone could try. To anyone's concern all hunting regulations and laws where followed for this product. We believe one bite into our Elk Jerky and you won't believe it came from a beer company.
